The Malones' Tour of Ireland

Join us as we travel to five of the most beautiful and traditional counties of Ireland for six full days. Enjoy sightseeing of these five counties during the day while enjoying daily doses of music, sessions and entertainment. We will visit the Burren in Co. Clare along with Lisdoonvarna, home of the Matchmaking Festival. From there we travel south to the Dingle Peninsula for a day, returning to Clare to visit the Cliffs of Moher and Doolin, famous for Gus O'Connor's Pub. While in Galway, we will tour this historic city and we will enjoy music in the Crane Pub at night. From Galway, we travel to Connemara & Mayo to visit Chieftains' Matt Malloy's Pub in Westport and take a walking tour of Cong, where "The Quiet Man" was filmed. As we travel back to the south, we visit Bunnratty Folk Park and then proceed to a panoramic tour of Limerick City, featuring the sights made famous by Frank McCourt in his book "Angela's Ashes". In Tipperary, we will experience the Rock of Cashel, the ancient seat of the early Kings of Munster. All of this, along with performances galore with The Malones and Their Cousin and with Irish Traditional music sessions with the best of the local musicians.

While in Limerick, on Wednesday, May 19th, we offer an optional Medieval Banquet in a 15th Century Castle with entertainment. Admission is NOT included in the tour price.*
